Have you ever thought about:

What makes an individual health literate?

How does the digital divide affect access to health information?

What is the effect of technology on access to health information?

How does the media influence our knowledge of health information?

Topics Include:

- Health literacy
- How to determine whether sources are reliable
- Digital divide as it relates to health
- Health in Oklahoma
- Community organizations outside of traditional health care facilities